Any order obtained in violation of this section may be set aside.

(5) Motion Practice.

(A) Motion Docket. The motion docket will be on Monday. If Monday is a holiday, the motion docket will be the following Tuesday. The Criminal Docket and Civil Docket will begin at 8:30. The Domestic Docket will begin at 9:00. Summary judgment motions, hearings requiring testimony and motions requiring argument longer than five minutes per side will be heard in the afternoon beginning at 1:30. Afternoon matters and continuances of matters must be scheduled through the Court Administrator or specially set by a Judge.

All material in response to a motion shall be filed and served no later than noon the work day before the hearing date. Courtesy copies of all documents relating to a motion should be provided to the judge by noon the work day before the hearing date.

(B) Time Limits. In the presentation of matters on the morning motion calendar, the parties shall be limited to five minutes on each side. At the conclusion of the time limit, argument shall cease and the matter shall be deemed submitted provided that if the court desires to hear further argument, it may place the matter at the end of the motion calendar, set the matter for further argument on the afternoon calendar, or continue the matter to a specified date.

(C) Noting Motions and Hearings. All matters for the morning calendar shall be noted through the Clerk's office. All matters for the afternoon calendar shall be set by the Court Administrator. With the consent of the court and all parties, motions and hearings may be heard by telephone conference or set on days other than motion days. Scheduling of such motions and hearings shall be done through the Court Administrator.

(D) Confirmation Process. Any matter noted on the afternoon docket will be stricken from the calendar unless the Court Administrator is notified in person or by telephone ((360) 249-5311) that the matter is to be continued to a date certain or that it is ready to be heard as scheduled. Such confirmation shall be given no sooner than the Tuesday before the hearing and no later than noon on the Thursday prior to the hearing. Hearings scheduled for the afternoon calendar will be stricken unless similarly confirmed by notice to the Court Administrator ((360)249-5311). Confirmation is not required for the morning docket, however, as a courtesy to the Court, the court clerk should be notified by noon Thursday of any matter which will not be heard on the Monday morning docket.

(E) Continuances. Motions may be continued one time by stipulation of the parties. Motions on the afternoon docket should be continued before the end of the confirmation period. Additional continuances must be with the approval of the court. Motions which are not ready to be argued on the day called and which are not continued shall be stricken subject to being renoted.

evidence pertaining to liability and damages and the respective positions of the parties on settlement. The attorneys shall be accompanied by their clients or representatives possessing authority to settle unless excused by the judge. The proceedings of the settlement conference shall be privileged and not recorded. If a settlement is not reached the settlement judge shall not make any order or preside at that trial on the merits without consent of all parties.

(c) Pretrial Conference. In all civil cases the court may order a pretrial conference on its own motion or that of any party. The order for a pretrial conference should specify the duties of the parties prior to the conference, whether attendance by the parties is mandatory, the information to be submitted prior to the conference, and items to be discussed at the conference.

RULE 40.
ASSIGNMENT OF CASES

(b) Method. The Court Administrator shall schedule all trial dates. The moving party shall serve and file a request for a trial setting substantially in the form set forth at the end of these civil rules. The opposing party shall serve and file a similar request. If no response is received by the Court Administrator within 10 days from receipt of the moving party's request, the Court Administrator will schedule the trial. The initial request for trial setting shall be accompanied by a list of the names and addresses of all persons entitled to notice. All parties have the obligation to inform the Court Administrator promptly of any errors or changes in this list. It is the responsibility of all sides to a lawsuit as well as the court, to set a case to be tried within the "Advisory Case Processing Time Standards." The court may enter appropriate orders to insure that all cases are resolved within those time standards.

(1) Scheduling Orders. If no agreed scheduling order is filed within sixty days after the trial date is assigned, the Court Administrator, under the supervision of the court, may set a scheduling order for the case. The scheduling order should include dates for the disclosure of primary witnesses and rebuttal witnesses. Other provisions may be required on a case by case basis. This pretrial schedule may be amended in writing by the mutual agreement of the parties.

(i) Disclosure of Primary Witnesses. The date by which each party shall have disclosed all persons with relevant factual or expert knowledge whom the party intends to call at trial.

(ii) Disclosure of Rebuttal Witnesses. The date by which each party shall have disclosed all persons whose knowledge did not appear relevant until the primary witnesses were disclosed and whom the party reserves the option to call as witnesses at trial.

(iii) Scope of Disclosure. Disclosure of witnesses under this rule shall include the witnesses name, address, and phone number, along with a brief description of the witnesses relevant knowledge. Disclosure of expert witnesses shall also include a summary of the expert's opinions and the basis therefore and a brief description of the expert's qualifications.

(iv) Exclusion of Testimony. Any person not disclosed in compliance with this rule and a scheduling order may not be called to testify at trial, unless the Court orders otherwise for good cause and subject to such conditions as justice requires.

(v) Discovery not Limited. This rule does not modify a party's responsibility to seasonably supplement responses to discovery requests or otherwise to comply with discovery before the deadlines set by a scheduling order.

(d) Trials.

(1) Trial Briefs. Trial briefs shall be filed and served in all cases. The original copy shall be filed with the Clerk, with one copy to the Judge and one copy to each opposing party. Jury trials should be conducted with minimal interruptions of the jury's time. To this end, matters which need to be heard outside the presence of the jury should be anticipated so that they can be considered during jury breaks or before or after the jury's day. Unless otherwise ordered or agreed, plaintiffs shall occupy the counsel table closest to the jury.

(e) Continuances. Motions for trial continuances shall be in writing. Continuances of trials may be granted only by a judge in writing for good cause shown. Continuances shall be to a date certain. (2) By Motion. The parties by stipulation may request that a case be preassigned, or any party may place a motion for preassignment upon the appropriate motion calendar.

(3) Discretionary Act. Preassignment of cases is a discretionary act. Affidavits of prejudice against the assigned judge which are not based on actual cause will be deemed waived unless filed before preassignment.

(4) All Matters to be Heard by Preassigned Judge. After selection of the trial judge in the preassigned case, the trial, all motions, conferences and other matters and proceedings, except settlement conferences, should be heard before that Judge, if available.

(h) Notice to Court of Calendar and Trial Changes. Whenever a cause which has been set for trial is settled or will not be tried for any reason, or if a jury is subsequently waived, the attorneys shall immediately give notice to the Court Administrator. If it becomes apparent that the time allocated for a trial will not be adequate to complete the trial, the parties shall promptly notify the Court Administrator of that fact and of the time necessary to complete the trial. The court may assess actual costs or other sanctions for a violation of this rule.

RULE 47.

Counsel will meet and confer before trial and agree as much as possible on the order of the record and what portions will be read. RULE 1.1
APPLICATION OF RULES

The purpose of mandatory arbitration of civil actions under RCW 7.06 as implemented by the Mandatory Arbitration Rules is to provide a simplified and economical procedure for obtaining the prompt and equitable resolution of disputes involving claims of $35,000.00 or less. The Mandatory Arbitration Rules as supplemented by these local rules are not designed to address every question which may arise during the arbitration process and the rules give considerable discretion to the arbitrator. The arbitrator should not hesitate to be informal and expeditious, consistent with the purpose of the statute and rules.

RULE 1.2
MATTERS SUBJECT TO ARBITRATION

By implementation of these rules the Superior Court of Washington for Grays Harbor County authorizes mandatory arbitration under RCW 7.06.010, and approves such arbitrations in civil actions in which no party asserts on the parties own behalf a claim in excess of $50,000.00 exclusive of interest, attorney fees, and costs under RCW 7.06.020 as amended. Domestic matters otherwise qualifying for arbitration shall only be submitted to arbitration by stipulation of the parties or by order of the court upon motion of either party.

RULE 1.3
RELATIONSHIP TO SUPERIOR COURT JURISDICTION AND OTHER RULES

(c) Motions. All motions before the court relating to mandatory arbitration shall be noted on the civil motions calendar in accordance with Grays Harbor County Local Rules, except as otherwise provided in these arbitration rules.

RULE 2.1
TRANSFER TO ARBITRATION

(a) Statement of Arbitrability. In every civil case the party filing the note for trial shall complete a statement of arbitrability substantially in the form attached to the civil rules.

(b) Response to Statement of Arbitrability. Any party disagreeing with the statement of arbitrability shall serve and file a response to the statement of arbitrability with a copy of the statement of arbitrability and note for trial setting objected to within ten days of the service of the statement of arbitrability and note for trial setting. A copy of both the statement and response shall be furnished to the court administrator by the responding party at the time of filing so that an objection calendar may be prepared. In the absence of such a response, the statement of arbitrability shall be deemed correct, and a nonresponding party shall be deemed to have stipulated to arbitration if the statement of arbitrability provides that the case is arbitrable. Otherwise, the case will not be subject to arbitration except by stipulation of the parties or court order and will be set for trial on the trial calendar.

(c) Failure to File--Amendments. A person failing to serve and file an original response within the times prescribed may later do so only upon leave of the court. A party may amend a statement of arbitrability or response at any time before assignment of an arbitrator thereafter only upon leave of the court for good cause shown.

(d) By Stipulation. If all parties file a stipulation to arbitration under MAR 8.1 the case will be placed on the arbitration calendar regardless of the nature of the case or amount in controversy.

RULE 3.1
QUALIFICATIONS

(a) Arbitration Panel. There shall be a panel of arbitrators in such numbers as the administrative committee may from time to time determine. A person desiring to serve as an arbitrator shall complete an application on a form prescribed by the court. A copy of said application of a person appointed as an arbitrator will be available upon request by any party and will be mailed to a requesting party at the party's own expense. The oath of office on the form prescribed by the court must be completed and filed prior to an appointed applicant being placed on the panel. An arbitrator must be a member of the Washington State Bar Association and have been admitted to the bar for a minimum of five years or be a retired judge.

(b) Refusal: Disqualification. The appointment of an arbitrator is subject to the right of that person to refuse to serve. An arbitrator must notify the presiding judge or designee immediately if refusing to serve or if any cause exists for the arbitrator's disqualification from the case upon any of the grounds of interest, relationship, bias or prejudice set forth in CJC Canon 3 governing the disqualification of judges. If disqualified, the arbitrator must immediately return all materials in a case to the presiding judge or designee.

AUTHORITY OF ARBITRATORS

An arbitrator has the authority to:

(a) Determine the time, place and procedure to present a motion before the arbitrator.

(b) Require a party or attorney advising such party or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure of such party or attorney or both to obey an order of the arbitrator unless the arbitrator finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust. The arbitrator shall make a special award for such expenses and shall file such award with the clerk of the superior court, with proof of service on each party. The aggrieved party shall have 10 days thereafter to appeal the award of such expense in accordance with the procedures described in RCW 2.24.050. If within 10 days after the award is filed no party appeals, a judgment shall be entered in a manner described generally under MAR 6.3.

The arbitrator shall consider the nature and complexity of the case, the amount in controversy, values at stake, the discovery that has already occurred, the burdens on the party from whom discovery is sought, and the possibility of unfair surprise which may result if discovery is restricted. Authorized discovery shall be conducted in accordance with the civil rules except that motions concerning discovery shall be determined by the arbitrator.

(b) Discovery Pending at the Time Arbitrator is Assigned. Discovery pending at the time the case is assigned to an arbitrator is stayed pending order from the arbitrator or except as the parties may stipulate or except as authorized by MAR 4.2.

The arbitrator shall give reasonable notice of the hearing date and any continuance to the presiding judge or designee.

RULE 5.2

(b) Return of Exhibits. When an award is filed, the arbitrator shall return all exhibits to the parties who offered them during the hearing.

RULE 6.3

RULE 7.2
PROCEDURE AT TRIAL

The clerk shall seal any award if a trial de novo is requested. All parties to an arbitration proceeding shall be parties at the trial de novo unless stipulated otherwise among the parties.

RULE 8.1
STIPULATIONS

RULE 8.6

Failure to timely note motions for hearing in accordance with this rule may be deemed a waiver of the pretrial hearing on such motions. The civil rules relating to motions and hearings (LCR 7) apply to criminal cases.

(h) Memorandum. The parties may submit an agreed order on omnibus. If an agreed order will not be submitted, each party shall prepare and submit an omnibus application substantially in the form set forth in Criminal Rules for Superior Court on or before the time set for the omnibus hearing.
